PARISH MEETING.
An adjourned meeting of the members of the First Parish was held at the church last Monday evening. The meeting was called to order and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:
Clerk, treasurer and collector, Caleb Lottrop; assessors, J. Q. A.
Lottrop, Abraham H. Tower and Edw. E. Elms. The reports of the treasurer and assessors were read and accepted. It was voted that the taxes be assessed, collected and paid into the treasury in the same manner as last year. Voted, that the matter of appropriation for the ensuing year be referred to the assessors. Voted, that the assessors be authorized and instructed to cause to be made such necessary repairs to the church as they deem expedient. Voted, that the sum of $3.50 be raised and appropriated for the current expenses of the parish.

THE BRIDGE HEARING.
The hearing on the petition of the selectmen of Cohasset for permission to bridge Little Harbor was resumed before the Legislative Council on Harbors at the Hotel New York today. The remonstrants set forth that as the town had voted against the bridge at its last annual meeting that there was no necessity for the bridge and that the petition should therefore be dismissed. Our selectmen however did not look at the matter in that light and the committee sustained the views of the selectmen and decided that the hearing should continue. The petitioners then called their two witnesses and after hearing their evidence the committee decided to adjourn the hearing until Thursday, April 16, and during the intermediate time to view the premises again. In regard to the standing of the opposition to the road it may be well for our readers to know that during the hearing it was extorted from Mr. Hyde, one of the counsel for the remonstrants, in answer to a direct question, that his client was "totally opposed to any road, of what ever name, nature or description."

THE CONWELL LECTURE.
An audience of about 200 of our citizens and friends of our High School assembled at the Town Hall, last Thursday evening to listen to the second lecture in this town of Col.
Russell H. Conwell, the merits of which are easily expressed in the few words, "the best and most interesting lecture ever given in Cohasset."
The subject, "Heroism in Private Life," was a sequel to the lecture delivered here in the People's Course by Col. Conwell, on Jan. 23, and introduced the story or romance of Daniel Mann, the great Italian liberator, in the study of whose history, Col. Conwell has spent much time and trouble.
The lecture, although it lasted over two hours, during the whole attention of the audience throughout, the speaker by his pleasing delivery and graphic word pictures, well demonstrating his honest claim to the title bestowed upon him by the press of the country, "The Picture-Preacher." The lecture, which was given under the auspices of the Cohasset High School, proved a financial failure, a fact which should not have been considering its excellence and the object for which it was given.

SOLDIERS' HOME CARNIVAL.
We published in a recent issue an article in regard to the soldiers' home carnival to be held in Mechanics building, commencing April 7. During the past week subscription papers and envelopes have been sent in from every house in town by a representative of Henry Bryant Post 98, G. A.
R. These envelopes will be called for in a few days by Comrade James Rooney of Post 98, who is authorized to collect all subscriptions to the carnival fund. As this is an object which is deserving of the attention and charity of every citizen of the Commonwealth, it is hoped that our Citizens will respond liberally to this appeal for funds. Do not be afraid to give too much or too little. Every contribution from one cent to the largest sums will be thankfully received. Don't let the citizens of Cohasset be behind its sister towns of the state in this matter.

THE OLD FOLKS CONCERT.
Some curiosity having been expressed as to the object for which the above is to be given, we are authorized to say that the principal end in view is to have a good time, sing the old songs with gusto, and the new ones, which will be liberally sprinkled in the program, with the proper spirit.
If there is any money left it will be given to the Cohasset Musical Association, which will furnish a select orchestra of 10 pieces for the occasion.
It is many years since anything of the kind has been held here and the affair promises to be a great success.

SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS.
The annual examination of the schools was commenced Thursday.
The Intermediate was examined in the morning and the King Street in the afternoon, the scholars of each showing good progress during the year. For next week the order of examinations will be as follows: Monday—a. m., Harbor; p. m., Jerusalem.
Tuesday—a. m., North Primary; p. m., North Grammar.
Wednesday—a. m., South Primary;
p. m., South Grammar.
Thursday—a. m., Centre Primary;
p. m., Centre Grammar.
Friday—a. m. and p. m., High.
The Beechwood will be examined on the afternoon of Friday, April 3d.

A PROCLAMATION.
BY HIS EXCELLENCY GEORGE D. ROBIN-SON, GOVERNOR, FOR A DAY OF FASTING AND PRAYER.
"In the fear of the Lord is strong confidence." On every hand we have a place of refuge. On every hand we have the arms of his wisdom and power, over-ruling the acts of individuals and directing the destinies of States.
It is fitting, therefore, that the people, at this season of the year, with one accord turn aside from the ordinary vocations and pleasures, and in observance of these holy duties, actively engage themselves in penitence upon Almighty God for the innumerable blessings He has vouchsafed, and in reverent humility seek His mercy.
With the advice and consent of the Council, I hereby appoint Thursday, the second day of April next, as a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer.
Let the people throughout the Commonwealth, actively engage themselves for their sins, and let them dedicate their lives in the highest consecration and devotion in the supplication for the continuance of divine favor and protection:
That we may be that people whose God is the Lord;
That relief may come to the distressed, comfort to the afflicted and hope to the downcast and despairing.
That integrity, righteousness, sound morality and pure religion may everywhere prevail, to the elevation of man and to the glory of the Father.
That every form of vice and wrong may bring a sense of deep contrition and rouse to vigilant activity the noblest instincts of the soul.
That our beloved Commonwealth, raised and perpetuated by the fathers, may stand before the world the highest ideal in inhuman government of justice, equality and freedom for all.
And that the guidance of infinite love and intelligence may be universally recognized in full obedience to God's holy and beneficent law.
Given at the Council Chamber in Boston, this eighteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and of the independence of the United States the sixty-first, the one hundred and ninth.
GEORGE D. ROBINSON.
By His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Council.
HARRY J. PARKER, Secretary.
God save the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Cohasset doctors are warranting death to patients, so says the COTTAGER. We hardly believe it, for Dr. Bates still lives. They may be deadly in all ordinary cases of dis-easement but patients are not published in that way—Stoughton Seminal.
Comment on the above is less respectfully referred to our doctors, one of whom has had considerable experience with Brother Standish in his younger days.

If the new democratic administration only will make a change in the head of the Boston post office and put in some one who can manage so that subscribers to country papers who live in Boston can get their news as early and as living as those living in Connecticut and Massachusetts, it will be entitled to a twine line top of every paper, free of charge—*Stoughton Semi-at its last meeting, the subject, "Silos and silage," the speaker, Mr. C. W. Smith, of Needham, being the only one who saw in Tewksbury and other localities were shown by the president.

The spectacle of a divine, a deacon, a prominent mill operator and a vendor of the worst kind of rum, acting together, was a feature of Monday's town meeting at Medway. Politics make queer bed fellows.
The next meeting of the Norwood Reform Club promises to be very interesting.
The discussion of slavery will be the subject, and the following following: Affirmatively, That it would be for the best interests of the town of Norwood to have a slave.

MARSHFIELD.

Mr. Ashton Porter is sick with the measles.

Mr. Harry Wright is under the doctor's care.

Miss Buba Weston is sick with pneumonia.

Miss Rosie May Sprague has been having the mumps.

The residence of the late Zenas Thomas is closed.

Mrs. Charlotte Sampson is visiting friends in Brockton.

Capt. As Sherman is very sick. Under the doctor's care.

Laurel Shurtliff has slaughtered 250 hogs during the fall and winter.

Over 500 visitors were present at the examination of the South Grammar school.

Capt. C. B. Goodsell has been appointed guardian of Isaac Henry Thomas.

Mr. S. R. Chandler sent off from his mill last week the largest two-horse load of lobster pots ever loaded there, being eighty in number.

Marshfield has the honor of having had the first school in the New England Colonies of which we have any record. It was established in 1645.

Rev. B. F. Jackson preached Sunday morning in the Congregational Church, and Rev. E. Allen supplied the pulpit at the Baptist church.

We are sorry to hear that the mumps have invaded Mr. O. N. Belknap's family. It is sincerely hoped they will wait for invitations before they make other calls.

In view of the refusal of the town at its recent meeting to appropriate any money for the purpose of the liquor law, thereby giving its moral influence against its enforcement, a meeting of the friends of Law and order will be held in the Agricultural hall, on Saturday next, at one o'clock for the purpose of devising means by which the sale of intoxicating liquors may be suppressed in town. All who have the cause of temperance at heart are earnestly invited.

The young people gathered Wednesday evening, the thirtieth of last week, at the home of Mr. J. H. Bates, and seeing that they could not all be present and take their seat, they took themselves over to Mr. As Walker's, and surprised the boys, Mr. "Will" Carver and Mr. H. Damon, each with one of the most useful articles belonging to a gentleman, a pressing iron.

Mrs. Walker was a very much surprised, and also very grateful for the gifts, for he got a nice piece of cotton cloth. We hope every one of March will be as pleasantly as this.

The Look Up Legion held a public meeting in the Old Agricultural hall Monday evening, the 27th of last week. The principal subject of the entertainment being, "Prohibition, when the children shall the fathers be found wanting."

DUXBURY.

Mrs. M. S. Orcutt of South Weymouth made a flying visit to town on Wednesday last.

Mr. Harry E. Wadsworth was at home last Friday, we are pleased to meet old friends.

A young house carpenter arrived at the house of Mr. Eugene Soule, Mar. 12, 1885.

The body of Mr. Josiah Morton was brought to town for burial on Wednesday, Mar. 11. He was an inmate of the Soldiers' Home in Germany, for nearly two years, where he died Feb. 28, aged 78 years.

Mrs. Ann Burgess who has been an inmate of the Soldiers' Home, died Mar. 10, of paralysis of the throat. Her body was brought to town for burial Tuesday, Mar. 10th.

A feeling of sadness arises as we chronicle the death of Mrs. E. Delano. She leaves a husband and three children, two sons and one daughter.

Many relatives and friends mourn her sudden departure. She was always ready to assist in a good cause, and her keen ways and happy disposition, rendered grief to lessen the most irksome task. She has passed to her reward, to that bourn where travel returns, it is said, and who has left behind her, her husband and three children.

His ways are mysterious and past finding out. His will be done. Home to Mrs. Delano was the dearest place she knew, and how sad and lonely will be the family circle without her. To the bereaved husband, relatives and friends, sympathy and give expression to our earnest hope that Christian resignation will soften the blow, which the providence of God has laid upon them.

WEST DUXBURY.

Mr. James Alden is at home sick.

Mrs. Teleg Alden is in Salem in search of a better home.

Mrs. E. Curtis of Hatchville has returned from a visit to Taunton.

Major Williams of Boston made a visit to Mr. Hiram Kaudal last week.

Mr. W. Hammond is collecting large quantities of kelp for the farm of Mr. Sawin.

Mr. H. Randall has disposed of a part of his No. 1, brahma hens to Major Williams of Boston.

Mr. Edward Church of So. Abington made a visit to Mrs. Mary Magoun's on Sunday.

It is said that the frost in the ground ranges from 30 to 36 inches in this vicinity.

Mr. Charles B. Sargent has commenced the enlargement of his house lately purchased on Taylor street.

We hear that Mr. Henry Tucker, who a short time ago was stricken with paralysis, is recovering.

On Monday last Mr. Everett Ewell was stricken down by a stroke of paralysis. We hear he is expected to recover.

The amount paid by the town for clearing snow from highways in 1871 was $201.42, of this year there has not been paid one cent.

Mr. J. N. Howland says he collected large quantities of ice (with an exception) last week, that he has seen in the business.

Mr. Augustus Drake's services seem to be in demand to care for the sick. He has taken another direction this time, going round the Swamp.

Mr. Clarence Ford who has been on the grocery wagon of Mr. J. F. Howland for some time, got through on Saturday night, and will return in the tack factory in Hanson which is nearer home.

The Social Union met at Mrs. A. A. Stearn's on Saturday evening, Mar. 14. The attendance was quite good.

Mr. Chas. A. Damon was united in marriage to Miss E. K. Hatch, Mr. Fred Curtis and Miss Mary Sparrell of South Scituate acting as bridegroom and bridesmaid.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Seaver, who found the long drive from Hanson to Marshfield, a large number of friends and relatives gathered to offer their congratulations to the newly married couple. The evening passed pleasantly and quickly, the company separating at a late hour leaving their best wishes.

"Health, happiness, prosperity, peace, As the years follow properly, increase."

Mr. and Mrs. Damon were the recipients of many valuable presents.

On Wednesday they left town for Lynn where they are to reside.
